The reason What Did You Expect? is so powerful is not because Paul Tripp is a marriage expert with tips and tricks to fix your problems, it's because his teaching is drenched in the gospel and the Word of God. This honest book will help you see yourself and your spouse in a new light as it shows you who Jesus is and how to connect his redeeming grace to the daily realities of your marriage. Which of the two sentences is correct? "What did you do ..." "What did you do?", on the other hand, is a question and not a nominal clause. It is formed like this: start with the prototypical sentence (subject verb object): So in summary, "what did you do?" is a question, whereas "what you did" is a special kind of sentence called a nominal clause.
